PURSUANT to the Georgetown Agreement as amended on 28 November 2003;

REAFFIRMING the solidarity among the Member States of the OACPS, their unity in diversity, their commitment to the promotion of good governance, and the rule of law, as well as social justice;

DETERMINED to reinforce intra-ACP cooperation and extend it to all strategic sectors, as a means of promoting the socio-economic development of the Member States of the OACPS and achieving and surpassing the basic needs of their peoples;

REAFFIRMING their commitment to adherence to the fundamental human rights defined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, particularly with regard to compliance with democratic principles, the rule of law, the right to development, as well as the right to self-determination;

DETERMINED to promote and develop greater and closer trade, economic, political, social, and cultural relations among the Member States and regions of the OACPS;

COMMITTED to the purposes and principles enshrined in the United Nations Charter, to the defence of multilateralism and to international law;

REJECTING the application of unilateral coercive measures to the Member States of the OACPS, including those measures with extraterritorial effects;

RESOLVED to consolidate and reinforce the existing solidarity and unity of the OACPS to address regional specificities in the implementation of the sustainable socio-economic development goals of the Member States of the OACPS and their peoples;

RECOGNISING the importance of regional integration and continental, intra OACPS cooperation, as well as North-South, South-South, and Triangular Cooperation as instrumental in promoting development based on the principles of subsidiarity, complementarity, and proportionality;

RECOGNISING that the objective of achieving sustainable development for all the Member States of the OACPS can only be achieved through the transformation of their economies, including by taking advantage of the benefits of regional trade, intensifying further trade cooperation and trade facilitation;

74. The Prime Minister of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago
75. The Prime Minister and Minister for Public Utilities of Tuvalu

78. The President of the Republic of Zambia
79. The President of the Republic of Zimbabwe

CONVINCED that the realisation of all internationally agreed development goals, as well as the integration of the Member States of the OACPS into the global economy, and the responsible management of the environment, are legitimate objectives reflecting the aspirations of the peoples of the Member States of the OACPS;

DETERMINED to ensure that all ACP Partnership Agreements contribute to the realisation of the common aspirations of developing countries, to self-reliant, endogenous and self-sustained development, based on their systems of cultural and social values;

COGNISANT of the need to maintain favourable multifaceted relations with our traditional partners, in particular those with the European Union, and to extend these to all other strategic international relations actors;

DESIROUS of enhancing the political identity of the OACPS to enable it to speak with one voice and to act as a single entity in the international arena on all issues of common interest, and to actively participate in global governance in order to meet global challenges and to contribute to the search for solutions to them;

RECOGNISING the ongoing impact of climate change on the well-being and sustainable development of the Member States of the OACPS, especially the Small Island Developing States (SIDS), and the importance of working together to identify and put in place measures to face the challenges presented by climate change;

RESOLVED to establish the OACPS as an international organisation, in order to achieve common objectives, thereby helping to create conditions that favour the socio-economic development of Member States of the OACPS and their peoples;

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Council of Ministers shall establish financial rules and procedures in accordance with international standards.
2. The OACPS shall observe sound financial management policies, practices, and budgetary discipline.
3. Financial accounts shall be subject to internal financial controls and external audits.

Article 30

Budget and Finances of the Secretariat of the OACPS

1. The Secretariat shall be provided with the necessary financial resources to perform its functions effectively.
2. The Budget of the Secretariat of the OACPS shall be met by Member States through annual contributions and any other sources, which shall be remitted in a timely manner, as prescribed in paragraph 6 of this Article.
3. The Secretary-General shall prepare the draft annual Budget of the Secretariat of the OACPS for approval by the Council of Ministers, upon the recommendation of the Committee of Ambassadors.
4. The Secretariat of the OACPS shall manage the Budget in accordance with the financial rules and procedures determined by the Council of Ministers, upon the recommendation of the Committee of Ambassadors.
5. Each Member State shall contribute to the Budget in accordance with the above provisions and Scale of Contributions established by the Council of Ministers.
6. Contributions to the Budget for each financial year shall be payable in freely convertible currency and shall become due on the first day of that financial year.

Article 31

Endowment and Trust Fund

In order to ensure the financial security required to finance the operational programmes and projects of the OACPS, an Endowment and Trust Fund shall be set up to solicit alternative means of financing the OACPS. The working modalities of this fund shall be determined by the Council of Ministers.

CHAPTER X

SANCTIONS

Article 32

Sanctions

1. The Council of Ministers shall determine and impose sanctions on a Member State which breaches its obligations under this Agreement. These sanctions may be imposed upon a Member State which:
 - a) continuously fails to honour its obligations under this Agreement, without a valid reason;
 - b) implements policies that undermine the principles and objectives of the OACPS;
 - c) does not conform to the decisions and policies of the OACPS.
2. The Council of Ministers will review the situations on a case-by-case basis to determine the suitable political or economic measures to be imposed, in order to ensure that the Member State in question fulfils its obligations.
3. As stipulated in Annex I of this Agreement, the sanctions decided on shall be imposed by the Secretariat of the OACPS on a Member State that is in arrears in the payment of contributions to the budget of the Secretariat of the OACPS.

CHAPTER XI

DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

Article 33

Dispute Settlement

1. Member States shall endeavour peacefully to resolve all disputes concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement and other instruments set up under OACPS in a timely manner, through dialogue, consultation, and negotiation in keeping with Article 33(1) of the Charter of the United Nations.
2. The OACPS shall maintain and establish dispute settlement mechanisms in all fields of cooperation.
3. Disputes relating to specific instruments shall be settled through the mechanisms and procedures provided for in such instruments.
4. Where not otherwise specifically provided, appropriate dispute settlement mechanisms, including arbitration, shall be established for resolving disputes.
5. Any Member State affected by the findings, recommendations, or decisions resulting from a dispute settlement mechanism may refer the matter to the Summit for a decision.

CHAPTER XII

FOREIGN RELATIONS

Article 34

Conduct of External Relations

1. The OACPS may conclude agreements with external countries or sub-regional, regional, and international organisations and institutions. The procedures for concluding such agreements shall be prescribed by the Council of Ministers or Sectoral Ministerial Committees, upon the recommendation of the Committee of Ambassadors.
2. The OACPS may collaborate with entities such as regional or international organisations that support this Agreement, its objectives and principles. In this regard, the Secretary-General shall be able to conclude a Memorandum of Understanding, where necessary.

Article 35

Relations with the United Nations System and other International Organisations and Institutions

1. The OACPS may seek Observer Status within the United Nations as well as with other sub-regional, regional, and international organisations and institutions.
2. The Council of Ministers shall decide on the participation in such sub-regional, regional, and international organisations and institutions.

Article 36

Status of External Parties

1. In conducting the external relations of the OACPS, the Council of Ministers may confer on an External Party the formal status of Dialogue Partner, Sectoral Dialogue Partner, Development Partner, Special and/or External Observer, Guest, or any other status that may be established.
2. External Parties may also be invited to attend meetings of the OACPS or to participate in collaborative activities without being conferred any formal status.

Article 37

Committees in Non-Member States and International Organisations

The OACPS may set up committees in non-Member States comprising Heads of diplomatic missions of Member States. Similar committees may be established relating to international organisations. Such committees shall promote the interests and identity of the OACPS in the host countries and international organisations, including the United Nations.

CHAPTER XIII

FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 38

Languages

The official languages of the OACPS shall be English, French, Portuguese, Spanish, and any other language as the Summit may stipulate.

Article 39

Amendments

1. The provisions of this Agreement may be amended by decision of the Summit, on the recommendation of the Council of Ministers.
2. A proposal for an amendment shall be submitted in writing by any Member State to the OACPS Secretariat. It shall be accompanied by supporting documents.
3. The proposed amendment shall not be included on the Agenda of a meeting of the Council of Ministers unless a period of at least six months from the date of its submission to the Member States has elapsed.
4. The Council of Ministers shall approve the draft amendment and submit it to the Summit at its next session for adoption and signature.

Article 40

Signature, Ratification and Accession

1. This Agreement shall be open for signature by Member States for a period of one year from the date of its conclusion.
2. This Agreement may be ratified subsequently by signatory States, in accordance with their internal constitutional procedures.
3. The instruments of ratification shall be deposited with the Secretariat of the OACPS.
4. Any new member that accedes to this Agreement after its entry into force shall deposit its instrument of ratification or accession with the Secretariat of the OACPS.

Article 41

Registration of the Agreement

This Agreement shall be registered by the Secretary-General with the Secretariat of the United Nations Organisation, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 of Article 102 of the United Nations Charter.

Article 42

Entry into Force

This Agreement shall enter into force thirty (30) days after being signed or ratified by one-third (1/3) of the Member States of the OACPS, in accordance with their internal constitutional procedures.

Article 43

Withdrawal of a Member State

1. Any Member State that decides to withdraw from the OACPS shall submit a written notification to the Summit through the Secretary-General. At the end of one year from the date of such notification, unless revoked, the Agreement shall cease to apply to that State.
2. A Member State withdrawing under this Article undertakes to honour any financial obligations duly assumed during its membership of the OACPS.
3. In the event that a withdrawing Member State refuses to honour its obligations under this Agreement, the dispute shall be settled using the methods stipulated by international law.

Article 44

Annexes

The Annexes shall form an integral part of this Agreement.

ANNEXE I

Arrears in Contribution

1. Sanctions may be imposed on any Member State which is in arrears in the payment of contributions to the Budget of the Secretariat of the OACPS, for reasons other than those caused by natural disasters or exceptional circumstances seriously affecting its economy, and which has not been exempted from payment by the Council of Ministers;
2. The following sanctions may be imposed on a Member State:
 - a) When in arrears for one year, suspension of the Member State's right to speak, vote and to receive documentation at meetings of the OACPS;
 - b) When in arrears for two years, suspension:
 - i. of the Member State's right to speak, vote and receive documentation at meetings of the OACPS; and
 - ii. of recruitment of personnel originating from the Member State in question to work in the Secretariat of the OACPS, and of the renewal of the employment contracts of personnel employed from the Member State in question;
 - c) When in arrears for three years or more, suspension:
 - i. of the Member State's right to speak, vote and receive documentation at meetings of the OACPS;
 - ii. of recruitment of personnel originating from the Member State in question to work in the Secretariat of the OACPS, and of the renewal of the employment contracts of personnel employed from the Member State in question; and
 - iii. of the provision by the OACPS of funds for new projects in the Member State.
3. The sanctions referred to in this ANNEXE shall be applied by the Secretariat of the OACPS without referring the matter to the Council of Ministers or to the Committee of Ambassadors, once the application of these sanctions is brought to the attention of Member States.

ANNEXE II

Subsidiary and Consultative Organs

The Inter-Regional Organisations Coordination Committee

1. The Inter-Regional Organisations Coordination Committee (IROCC) shall operate on the basis of the principles of subsidiarity, complementarity, and proportionality. It shall address crosscutting, thematic and all other issues necessary for the promotion of regional integration and cooperation.
2. The IROCC shall meet annually, and shall be composed of the Chief Executive Officers of the participating organisations.
3. In areas and sectors common to the OACPS and regional organisations, the Inter-Regional Coordinating Committee shall play a consultative role, while negotiating with external partners or any other development party.

4. The Inter-Regional Organisations Coordination Committee shall also form part of the structure responsible for the management of the Endowment Trust Fund established under Article 31.

Business Forum

1. The active involvement of the private sector as a driving force in the creation of a market-driven economy is crucial for the attainment of the objectives of the OACPS. In this regard, a Business Forum shall be established, which shall also serve as a public and private sector forum.
2. This forum shall comprise the Chief Executive Officers of OACPS Member States' private sector organisations. It shall meet annually on the margins of the meeting of the Council of Ministers. It shall submit its report to the President of the Council of Ministers.
3. The operational modalities of the Business Forum shall be determined.

SIDS Forum

1. A SIDS Forum shall be established to address the specificities and needs of Small Island Developing States (SIDS).
2. This Forum shall support the economies of SIDS and improve their resilience before and after natural disasters. It will address the vulnerabilities and challenges caused by climate change, through the adoption and implementation of adaptation and mitigation measures.
3. Efforts shall be made to define common positions on the promotion and safeguard of the interests of SIDS, through the definition and adoption by the OACPS of a common position in all fora where relevant issues are discussed.

Cultural Foundation

1. The Member States of the OACPS shall place culture high on their political agenda, while recognising the economic importance of cultural industries and other cultural activities.
2. Culture helps to promote understanding among the peoples of the Member States of the OACPS, thereby contributing to the promotion of peace and security. Greater attention should be paid to cultural products and services during discussions with the European Union and other potential partners, particularly for the free movement of artists and cultural goods.

3. In order to develop cultural activities both between and among the Member States of the OACPS and partner countries, a Cultural Foundation shall be established.
4. The Foundation shall support the Secretary-General and collaborate with the relevant organs of the OACPS, in order to promote greater awareness of the identity of OACPS, increased interaction among populations, and closer collaboration among the business sector, civil society, academia, and other stakeholders.
5. The Foundation shall be accountable to the Secretary-General, who shall submit a report to the Summit, through the Council of Ministers.

National Focal Points

1. Each Member State shall establish a National Focal Point which shall:
 - a) serve as the focal point for activities related to the mandate of the OACPS;
 - b) be the repository of information on all matters at the national level concerning the Organisation;
 - c) coordinate the implementation of all decisions at the national level;
 - d) coordinate and support national preparations for meetings of the OACPS;
 - e) promote the identity of the OACPS, ensure implementation of its decisions and resolutions, and create awareness at the national level.

The Organisation of African, Caribbean and Pacific States (OACPS), formerly known as the ACP Group of States, is an organisation created by the Georgetown Agreement in 1975. The OACPS' main goals centre around the sustainable development of its Member States and their gradual integration into the global economy; coordination of the activities of the OACPS in the framework of the implementation of the existing Partnership Agreement with the European Union; consolidation of unity and solidarity among OACPS States and establishment and strengthening of peace and stability in free and democratic societies.
